

Roots Group Covenant

As a member of this Roots Group:

I understand this group is intended to be a place where we can grow deeper in our faith and closer to each other. This group is not just about me as an individual. The goal of this group is for God to work in and grow us.

Roots Group is not just an informational Bible study, prayer time, social group or family counseling session. It may include all these things at times, but as the Holy Spirit works in this group it is intended to be much more.

There will be times when I am more excited to be a part of this group as well as times that I feel distracted or busy. But I understand that I am an important member of this group and my group members need my commitment, just like the body needs every part.

Specifically:

- I commit to open myself up to God's transforming work through this Roots Group.
- I commit to being at Roots Group every week. If I miss more than once a month, I'm still loved, but not ready for this level of commitment. The group leader should lovingly call me out.
- I commit to this Roots Group for the entire semester.
- I commit to not judge, but rather value each member of the group as Jesus does.
- I commit to being fully prepared for Roots Group by reading, praying, etc. for the benefit of the group and to respect the sacrifice others are making.
- I commit to making everyone feel welcome during Roots Group.
- I commit to being open and honest with the group while also keeping our group's conversations confidential.
- I commit to move towards Living Out God's Mission on Campus as a uniquely and beautifully made disciple of Jesus.
